

A Special Shopping Event to Benefit THE SUDBURY WAYLAND LINCOLN DOMESTIC VIOLENCE ROUNDTABLE

Sunday December 4, 1-4 PM

The Mango Tree Artisans Shop

The Rugged Bear Plaza, at 410 Boston Post Road, Sudbury

Enjoy light refreshments while you shop. This is a perfect opportunity to do your holiday shopping, support the Roundtable, a local merchant and people of the world. The Roundtable receives a percentage of all sale proceeds made during this event.

The Mango Tree Artisans support Fair Trade, which means that the artists and producers in the developing world are paid fairly, work in safe, healthy conditions, and are trying to be environmentally sustainable.

The Sudbury-Wayland-Lincoln Domestic Violence Roundtable is an all-volunteer organization of men and women working to educate our local communities about spousal and partner abuse, bullying, and teen dating violence. The Roundtable also provides domestic violence resource materials to local businesses medical, dental, and other professional offices, public buildings, and faith communities.
