

First and Second grade girls are invited to participate in "Living in Long Ago Days," an after-school program sponsored by the Wayland Historical Society. Tailored to six-to-eight-year-olds, this program minimizes listening time and allows the children to learn through taking part in Colonial games, crafts and activities whenever they put on their "let's pretend" mobcaps.

Sessions will be Tuesdays, February 28, March 7, 14 and 21 at 3:15 p.m. at the Grout-Heard House, located next to the Library.

Please register by filling out the attached form and mailing it by February 17, 2017, with your $50 fee for the four sessions, to the Wayland Historical Society, P O Box 56, Wayland, MA 01778. Scholarships are available. For details, phone the Wayland Historical Society, 508-358-7959. Registration is limited and will be honored in the order received.

(Registration is limited. Deadline February 17, 2017. Scholarships are available.)
