

ON TUESDAY 2/6, 7:30 PM

THE WAYLAND FREE PUBLIC LIBRARY

GREAT PRESENTERS

5 CONCORD ROAD
WAYLAND, MA 01778

Celebrates...

... The Wayland Energy and Climate Committee which has been successfully working over the past seven years to reduce our collective carbon footprint and save the town money. Learn what's next, and how to help.

Plant-Rich, Delicious Food

And there's nothing better for the climate than a plant rich diet, which improves health and reduces personal carbon impacts. Diana Goldman of Beantown Kitchen will present recipes and share samples of her delicious cuisine!

Food Scraps Composting

City Compost to the rescue! They will present their curbside food scraps pickup program.

Also learn about MassEnergize, a Wayland grassroots effort to help residents find smart solutions for home and climate, vetted by local volunteers and ready to go! Check it out at www.MassEnergize.org

The Great Presenters are

Ellen Tohn, an environmental health consultant and founder of Tohn Environmental Strategies.

Anne Harris, a concerned Wayland resident and longtime climate activist.

Ellen and Anne co-chair the Energy and Climate Committee.

Diana Goldman is a vegan chef, teacher and founder of BeantownKitchen.com.

Vegan double chocolate ganache cupcakes at beantownkitchen.com & Wayland town Electric vehicles, chargers, and solar arrays behind the Town Building

