

Ben Rabin Senior Recital

June 4, 2012

7:30 pm

Wayland High School Auditorium

Ben Rabin, violin
Alex Rabin, piano

Works by J.S. Bach, Béla Bartók and César Franck

Ben Rabin, 17, has served as assistant principal second violin for the New England Conservatory Youth Philharmonic Orchestra. He has performed as soloist with the Longy Youth Symphony and was a prize winner at several state music competitions. His teachers have included Mark Lakirovich and Magdalena Richter. Ben has also attended the Greenwood Music Camp for 3 summers where he performed with other talented young musicians. This fall, he will attend Oberlin College in Oberlin, OH.

Alex Rabin, 27, received third prize at the 2007 International Chamber Music Competition in Lyon, France. He has performed on NPR, WGBH, and Radio France. His teachers have included Patricia Zander, Boris Berman, and Eda Shlyam. Alex received a BA in music from Yale College with studies at the Yale School of Music, and is a recent graduate of the Emory University School of Medicine. This July, he will start his medical residency in internal medicine at the Brigham and Women's Hospital in Boston, MA.