

The Lake Cochituate Watershed Council invites you to:

Lake Cochituate
Watershed Council

Respect and Restore

A Symposium

on the

Lake Cochituate Watershed

Saturday, March 12, 2011

8:30 am - 3 pm
Natick Town Hall

Keynote Speaker:

Mike Lowery, Wayland Surface Water Quality Committee

Topic: Consensus Strategies for Invasive Species Management

Other Workshops:

- o Stormwater and What We Can Do About It --Nancy Bryant, Exec. Director of The SuAsCo Watershed Community Council
- o Sustainable Backyards -How Homeowners Can Eliminate Toxic Chemicals From their Backyard Diet and Establish Wildlife Diversity --Risa Edelstein, President - Ecological Landscaping Association
- o The NOI Program: How it Works --Mike Lowery, Carole Berkowitz,
- o The Johnson School Story - Kathy Branagan, Jennifer Takasaki, and Kathy Lee, Johnson School Outdoor Classroom Committee
- o Watershed Organizations -Common Challenges and Strategies For Success-Gay Gillespie, Westport River Watershed Alliance
- o Saving Turtles and Amphibians - Emily Norton and Jennifer Pettit, Friends of Willard Brook
- o Critical Issues Facing our Massachusetts Lakes and Ponds. -- Tom Flannery and Jim Straub (DCR - Lakes and Ponds)
- o Mobilizing Volunteers to Take Back our Local Trails and Waterways plus Promote Vigorous Outdoor Recycling Programs in Massachusetts - Pat Conaway

Coffee and snacks at Registration
Sack Lunch and drink provided
Door Prizes

No Registration Fee, but contributions welcome

Checks payable to: LCWC

a (501c3) non-profit (Tax exempt # 320-303-380)

To Register:

contact bpconaway@gmail.com or online at lcwcs.org or write:

Attn: P. Conaway

PO Box 183

Natick, Massachusetts 01760